As of 12:01AM on 1/1/2013 I and dislikes of each member that become your new Commodore. I encompasses the family, and instill a look forward to this challenge with working relationship with all anticipation, enthusiasm and member of that family. excitement.

Anticipation because I know the great bridge and board the club has challenges of a Commodore. A that will guide them through 2013 yacht club is like a large family, with and on into the future.

Excitement because I've seen the just a few more relatives then the calendar for the upcoming year and normal family. All with different personalities, likes and dislikes. it's full of exciting activities to keep The trick is to try anticipate the likes every member active.

Hello fellow NYCLB members,

I'm Victor Padilla, your Vice Commodore for the upcoming year. Some of you may know me, as I have been a member in good standing since 1991 when we were at the Naval Station Long Beach. I was a director for 3 years and then started up the chairs of the club and was Commodore in 1999. When the opportunity came about that the club was looking for a V.C. for the coming year I was interested. My wife Pam and I both thought that it would be good for us and the club. I think that I'll bring some old school back and some fresh ideas. When speaking

Our first event is the Commodores and Flag Officers Champagne Brunch on January 20th at 11:30 AM. (See flyer in this month's issue for more details). Please come out and get to know all of us better. I personally look forward to spending the day with each and every one of you, as we start out this year's social events.

If you have any ideas, questions, concerns or just want to say hello, please give me a call at 562-212-7449 or drop me an email at satnd1@msn.com or my work email at jstafford@iconresidential.com.

Well that's all I have for now. I hope to see you all around the club house, so until then, smooth sailing,
Jeanne Stafford, Commodore

Tamara Carbone, Jr. Staff Commodore

Out With 2012. We celebrated the holidays during December. First we watched the Army Navy game at the club house holding our breath as the Navy team roller coasted up and down to a final victory in the last few minutes. Good game, good food and good cheer. Go Navy.

The following day we enjoyed a great Christmas brunch and ocean view at LaPalapa Del Sur in Belmont Shores. After brunch and margaritas we fought each other over the ornament gift exchange, swapping them at least two times. (An ornament can't be taken away more than twice.) Amazing how the little things have great meaning when you have nothing else to do but have fun.

Finally, we held our Annual Naples Boat Parade & Chili Cook out. The food was hot and spicy, and the weather was chilly. About 40 people snuggled together near a few gas heaters and fire pit. We took Alamitos Bay on several boats becoming part of the parade, following the Christmas lights throughout the bay, and finally ending up at our clubhouse. Those of us remaining sat around the fire pit to warm up before heading home.

What a great evening. Thanks to all who brought food and chili, to Becky and Tony Rietdyk and Mark Steiert for managing food and set up, to Kent Childs at the bar assisted by Mary Lium and to Jeanne Stafford, Vice Commodore and now 2013 Commodore.

We usually cruise into the clubhouse long dock to enjoy New Years Eve and celebrate 2012 accomplishments. Hope the fireworks are great this year.

In With 2013. I told Mark Steiert, I'm not going to ride off into the sunset. As Jr. Staff Commodore I'm still involved with our wonderful club. The most significant part of my job is to put on our Opening Day in April, the formal opening of the yachting season for members. With your help, we will have the best Opening Day of all the yachting clubs in 2013.

Please think about volunteering for an Opening Day committee. We need help with invitations, flyers, announcements, ceremony, food preparation, bar service, decoration, set up and clean up, reception, photography, and entertainment. Every little bit helps. The task is a challenge but we always meet it and have a lot of fun along the way. Look for more details in the next Scuttlebutt.

Also, I'll be assisting Jeanne Stafford, 2013 Commodore and other flag officers with membership, bar purchasing and liquor license applications, scuttlebutt editing, social activities and whatever else is needed.

Serving as your Commodore has been a very special experience for me. The NYCLB members, 2012 flag, directors, officers, and especially my husband, Tony Carbone, have my gratitude and appreciation for all your support during the year.

Jr. Staff Commodore 2013

with the nominating committee, they wanted to be sure I would be Commodore the following year. Yes I will be here for two years and beyond. I'm looking forward to meeting all of the newer members and also the members that have been with the club for many years. I will have more to say in the next Scuttlebutt.

We have some great gatherings coming up: The Commodores and Bridge Officer Champagne Brunch on January 20th. See the attached flyer.

Also the Old Fashion Sweetheart Social on Sunday, February 12th. See the attached flyer.

Once again I'm honored to be your Vice Commodore.
